Question of the Week

How can I remain vigilant in looking for Jesus over this coming week?

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Today we are reminded that one day Jesus will return in glory as the world comes to an earth-shattering conclusion. As frightening as the warnings are in today's readings, they are accompanied by assurances that God remains with us. Always. Indeed, soon we will be reminded that Emmanuel means "God is with us." Jesus—Emmanuel—will return in glory at the end of time. Let us pray in thanksgiving today for God's abiding presence with us here on earth.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

If a film were made of today's readings, it would include some terrific special effects, but also some quite tender images. Daniel's prophetic vision imagines those who lead others to justice shining like stars in the sky, beacons to a new life. Hebrews visualizes Jesus' enemies as his footstool. Jesus warns his disciples that at the end of time the stars would fall from the sky and the sun would go dark. Let today's readings remind us always to remain vigilant, for we cannot know the day nor the hour.

FEAST OF FAITH

Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.

PRAY FOR THE POOR SOULS IN PURGATORY

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass freeing souls from Purgatory “And making a gathering, he [Judas] sent twelve thousand drachms of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection (for if he had not hoped that they that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead) and because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.” — II Maccabees 12:43-46

33rd Sunday Ordinary Time

And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory. Mark 13:26

Everything in life is passing away except the words of our Lord. All that He has spoken and revealed to us will remain for all time and these truths are the only thing in life worth working for. Turn your eyes to the Word of God and try to grasp its meaning more deeply so that you can begin to build up treasure in Heaven, here and now!

The Transfiguration, Paul Rubens, 1605

Realize God Owns It All!

None of what you have is yours. It all came from the Lord. The Bible tells us that tithing is a way to show that we trust God with our lives and our finances. Tithing isn't for God's benefit. He doesn't need our money. Instead, tithing is meant for our benefit because sacrificing a portion of our income reminds us to rely on God to meet our needs. Plus, it makes us more aware of the needs of others.

Treasure

"Where your heart is, so will be your treasure." (Mt. 6:21)
